

SPX CROSS COUNTRY RUNNERS USE TEXAS A&M INVITATIONAL TO INTRODUCE NEW OFFICIAL TEAM SLOGAN

'Let Us Prey' Fitting Motto for Hungry Panther Distance Runners as Playoffs Near

COLLEGE STATION, Texas – With the TAPPS 3-6A District Meet and the TAPPS 6A State Meet approaching in October, the St. Pius X cross country team unveiled its new team slogan and t-shirt at the Texas A&M Invitational on Saturday, September 22. The black 'Let Us Prey' t-shirts proved a popular item at the College Station meet as more than 70 student athletes, family members and coaches wore the shirts in a sign of team unity at the large state-wide public school meet. The Panther harriers will stalk their next prey at the Nike South Invitational in The Woodlands on Saturday, October 6.

St. Pius X cross country t-shirt front (upper left) and back with slogan (upper right).

“Let Us Prey”

###

St. Pius X Background

The Dominican Sisters of Houston founded St. Pius X High School in 1956 to serve the educational and spiritual needs of the young men and women of Houston. Its mission compels the School to provide an affordable quality Catholic education distinguished by a commitment to the individual, to spiritual and moral development, to a love of learning, and to the cultivation of leadership.

For more information regarding St. Pius X High School or for volunteer opportunities, please contact Erika Bowen at (713) 578-7513 or via email at olivarrie@stpiusx.org.